The intention of Christ's incarnation was the redemption and salvation of the world. He died an ignominious death on the cross that we through his death might live. This service is in commemoration of the most important event in the world's history. God has bestowed many blessings upon us during the past year for which we should be sincerely thankful. The music rendered during the evening by the choir, under the directorship of Prof. Pauli, was of an unusually high order.

The New York World says: In a sketch of the career of the late Editor Grady, published in yesterday's World, it was stated that Mr. Grady secured his interest in the Atlanta Constitution through a lucky speculation. This was erroneous. In 1880 Mr. Cyrag W. Field, of this city, loaned Mr. Grady $20,000. At that time few Northern men could be found willing to advance large sums, without security, for men could be found willing to advance large sums, without security, to Southerners. The money thus obtained was used by Mr. Grady in securing an interest in the Constitution. He repaid Mr. Field in two years, with interest. Mr. Field recognized the ability and the manhood in the young Southers: journalist. He had reason to feel proud today of the record which he has left.

Well, if it is not, then negroes may be shut out from the bar. More women from the bar. But that decision leaves the question as unsettly as it was before the decision we rendered. It was based not on the ground of sex, not because the applyonant excluded leaves a woman, but on the ground that the right to practise law is not a right protected by the fourteenth amendment.

Well, if it is not, then negroes may be shut out from the bar. More

The Christmas service at Greene Memorial church was brief and consisted of an address by Rev. J. H. Boyd, the pastor, and the singing of a number of anthems. Mr. Boyd's subject was "The birth of Christ as a child of prophecy and of promise." He refered to the prophecies of Jacob, Isaiah and of Moses concerning the coming and of Moses concerning the coming of Christ, who was to deliver mankind from the thraidom of sin. As a child of promise he mentioned the scene in the garden of Eden when God said the seed of the wayner shall braid to the seed of the wayner shall braid to the seed of the wayner shall braid to the said to the seed of the wayner shall braid to the seed of the seed of the wayner shall braid to the said given by the seed of the wayner shall braid to the seed of the seed of the wayner shall braid to the seed of the seed of the wayner shall braid to the seed of the seed of the wayner shall be seed to the seed of the seed of the wayner shall be seed to the seed of the seed to the seed t the garden of Eden when God said the seed of the woman shall bruise the serpent's head," and the promise made to Abraham "In thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed."
